Dear Shameka Reynolds:

Congratulations! We are pleased to inform you of your selection to the Atlanta Business League's 2022 list of "Atlanta's Top 100 Black Women of Influence." You will be recognized during the "Women of Vision" Breakfast on Tuesday, October 4, 2022, 8:00 a.m. at the Sheraton Atlanta Hotel, 165 Courtland Street, NE Atlanta, GA 30303.

Since 1994, the Atlanta Business League (ABL) has published its list of "Atlanta's Top 100 Black Women of Influence." The list reflects the names of Black women in the metro Atlanta community who have reached senior level positions within their profession; are leading entrepreneurs in their industry or have attained the ability to influence large public bodies politically and in government. In addition to professional accomplishments, the "100 Black Women of Influence" have demonstrated their commitment to the citizens of metro Atlanta by maintaining significant involvement and participation in community and civic activities.

In addition to naming Atlanta's Top 100 Black Women of Influence and recognizing the 'Tenured' Women of Influence, ABL will induct one outstanding woman into the Women's Hall of Fame. This year's inductee, Dr. Helene Gayle, President, Spelman College, will join Hall of Fame inductees from the years 2000 through 2021.

Registration is required. Please kindly click here to register for the Women of Vision Breakfast and all Conference activities. Space is limited, please submit your registration as soon as possible.

Should you have any questions, please email Terrisita Terry, Director of Operations, at tterry@atlantabusinessleague.org or call (404) 584-8126 ext. 102. We look forward to seeing you on October 4, 2022, to officially recognize you for your hard work and dedication.

Sincerely,
